“ Sharon, Dawn, and Pam:
Danny will be missed dearly. I new Danny when he was on the Board of Directors when the Credit Union was Dupont Employees FCU. It was an honor to have known him. He always had great stories to tell me, Pam and Glenda when we had the office in the Troy Lab many years ago. Just know that he is resting in peace and looking down on all of us, with that big smile he always had. My thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family.##imported-begin##Lois Stafford##imported-end##

“ Sharon, Dawn, and Pam:

Words cannot express my feelings for your loss at this time. Dan was such a strong and positive guy, even in the struggles of dealing with medical issues that have lasted years.

As a former neighbor on Wakefield, I remember so many good times at your home...from pool parties and family gatherings to just a friendly hello and a neighborly visit... I especially remember the times when I lived there as a single gal and your family watched over my house, pets, and yard when I was out of town.

In your family gatherings you were always wonderful including me as if I were a relative.

Dawn, you were a valuable employee at Paul's dental office and he appreciates those years.

May you find comfort in the prayers and support of your family and friends today and in all the days to come.

Carol and Paul Nowakowski

P.S.

I hope to see you on Saturday, if my walking and driving ability is good. I have been going through a rough two months with Achilles Tendonitis and have been off my feet a lot... Paul just had another back surgery a month ago, so he is not able to do much as yet.##imported-begin##Carol Nowakowski ##imported-end##

“ Dear Pa ,

*I miss you and i love you.
I know that some day i will be up there with you. and then we can make some more good memories together. I always enjoyed going camping with you and grammy I rememberwhen we went to the island together and i found that egg and that night it broke in my tent and smelled so bad. that it got all on my cloths and we washed them like ten times and the smell never came out so after that you gave me a big talk about not to mess with nature let it be!!!*

“Daddy... I just wanted to say that I am sorry for past choices in my life that caused undue hardship and any bad feelings. I want to thank you though for letting me have my wings and letting me fly & learn many, many life lessons! You know how much I love you & that you are MY Daddy!! I am very proud of that!! It's now my turn for me to make you proud of me!! If there is just one thing that I am certain of it is that, over the years, both good & bad things have happened, they have made me ready & as strong as a daughter can be to help mom through this. I will not let you down & I am with mom. She will not be alone, I will help her stay strong! You always told me a couple of lessons that are gospel to me (now more than ever)#1. NEVER make a promise your butt (u know what u really said though, heehee) can not cash & #2 theres a right way & a wrong way... DO THE RIGHT THING!! I love you & I am going to miss you so much but I want you to know that "I PROMISE" I WILL MAKE YOU PROUD & I WILL TAKE CARE OF MOM!!! This is my "PROMISE" to you! Dad... again thank you so much for my life and all the special gifts you have always provided (even though I did not know at the time they were gifts). I LOVE YOU and you have to promise me that you will Rest in Peace. 'daddy, daddy, daddy, daddy..... I LOVE YOU!!!!!!! Rest in Peace ^j^ I love you, I love you, I love you, I LOVE YOU!!!!!!

“ Dear Sharon, Dawn and Pam, the times I saw Danny the last few years, he was always smiling and very up-beat. For all he was going through, it had to be because of all your love and support. Your family showed me and I'm sure many others the joy that love can have on someone in need. Please stay in touch and know that you will always be part of our Dupont family. “ Dear Sharon, Dawn & Pam, Our hearts go out to you. Danny fought a hard battle for many years. He is at peace now and in God's loving arms. We will all miss him. Danny recalls when both of them were "Danny Macko" in their early years at Sacred Heart School - confusing! We love you all and will see you on Saturday.
