“ I was shocked and sadden about the loss of a great guy and friend! I've known Dan for approximately 50 years, and although we were not close friends, Dan was always happy to see me and curious to what was happening in my life. I remember all the stories he had about his real estate empire. I will miss his cheerful smile and friendly voice. He will truly be missed!

“ *I've known Dan for over 60 years. Grew up together on the east side of Detroit. Played baseball and football at Lipke Park. We graduated from Osborn High in 1964!
Dan and I have done a lot of crazy things together. Knew him when he met Bev at the Town and Country Party Store.
Dan was a great guy And I will truly miss him. Rest In Peace Buddy.*

“ I only met Daniel once in our visits to, as Charles Schultz would put it, “The Daisy Hill puppy farm”.
He surely was a gentle, kind-hearted and loving man to embrace all of those years of breeding, housing and showing Border Terriers. (The best dogs on the planet!)
Bev, I wish I still lived close by. I’d bring you a casserole and a kiss. My heart goes out to you. May you be surrounded by the love of friends and family to comfort you - both those which walk on two legs and those that walk on four.
We’re so sorry for this devastating loss. Our prayers are with you.

“ Whenever my husband and I visited the house, Danny was always kind and generous with his knowledge of handiwork. He had solutions for everything and shared them readily. I will always remember how much he loved the dogs. My favorite Danny And The Dogs story will always be his calling a couple of the blue and tan girls "The Supremes". He insisted "They will run together and not allow any colors to join them." Too funny. I will miss him.
Love to his family, Amy Andrews

I am at a loss for words, Dan and I were best friends since we were 4 years old and went to st. Hyacinth in the old neighborhood. We were in the first grade together and were 2 of 4 santa claus' in the 1st grade christmas play. Our parents followed each other to our lady queen of heaven and we have been friends our whole life. I will miss you dearly old friend. Until we see each other again.
