“ I’ve been sharing so many memories over the past few days but this one seems to make me laugh the most. You all remember when he dressed up as a baby and wore that big ol diaper and rode around on the bike. My goodness. He was always in for a good time. I can still smell his cologn, see his perfect feathered back hair, and hear his raspy voice “ hey, how ya doin kid”? Give Paps a cowlick for me.

I remember when Uncle Danny broke both his legs at the river by the Horr Store. After that, I was at Grams and he was on a ladder by the porch doing something to the roof..with both legs casted. I called the radio station and had them play “Friends in Low Places” for my broken uncle. Haha And when Tiff was you and couldn’t say uncle Danny so she called him Uncle Diggity..so many amazing, funny memories growing up. I will miss you so much uncle Danny and hearing your voice say “How ya doin hun”. Hug Pawpaw for me. I know you’re Dancing and causing Chaos in Heaven. Until we meet again..

Mention Danny Hunt and the first things that come to mind for me are his sly dog smile and his quick wit. Danny always made people laugh. He was a good man! I’m sorry for your loss Mary. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.
