“ At a loss for words. I have so many wonderful memories of Darrel with my family. Our children have so many childhood memories together with you that we will cherish forever. My heart is broken. We will keep Ashlee and Josh close. I truly believe you will be watching over them, they have inherited your kindness and gentle ways and I hear your laugh when they laugh. You are forever in our hearts. Sherrie DiCristofaro

“ So sorry Ashlee and Josh. One of my favorite memories of you dad, is him and Uncle Steve singing 'Friends in Low Places', very loudly and kinda bad at Augie's Country bar. They had declined to sing Karaoke, but I guarantee a lot of people heard them. They had so much fun.

“ Darrel showing off his White Elephant gift at the Carrier Family Christmas. We always had lots of fun and laughter. So many wonderful memories! Darrel had a quick wit and a laugh that filled others with joy. He was such an amazing father! Darrel's positive influence on his children is evidenced by the many admirable qualities that Ashlee and Josh have today. Darrel was a wonderful man with a kind soul. I was honored to call him brother-in-law for so many years. He will be missed here on Earth, but his legacy of kindness, love and gentleness will live on in his children and the people whose lives he touched.

“ So sorry to hear about Darrel, fishing for Stripers at Smith Mountain with him always became an adventure. When my brothers and I remember each adventure like running out of gas, launching the boat he throw the guide rope back on the boat and the boat drifted away from the dock we bust out laughing. He loved to see the rods bend and he would hold the rod over his head to keep DJ from getting hands on the rod. My brothers DJ, Don, Tim and myself will miss him Rest In Peace Darrel.
