“ Lynn and Carol White, treasures in the Kingdom of God. Two of the sweetest saints you could ever meet. Lynn added such dignity and depth to pastoral ministry. A servant of God Who when he preached or conversed, there was always something that you felt should be written down. Not that Lynn had any grandiose self concept. He was as humble as they come! We are so blessed that our lives intersected with the Whites. Our deep hearted sympathy to Carol in the loss of your precious husband and best friend. To Jesus He has gone, and to Jesus you will soon come! Lynn has led the way as He always did. He was always a step ahead of us all. Our strong love to you dear Carol. Our hearts weep with yours! Bob and Ruth Klingenberg.

“ I had the opportunity to work with Pastor Lynn White years ago, first as an Evangelist at his church and then as he and Carol joined us in Waterford to assist with our seniors. Lynn was a kind, conscientious and dedicated man. He also had a great sense of humor. God bless you Carol and you navigate life without him by your side....for now.

“ Lynn's life emanated love. Love for God and love others. His whole life seem to follow Mark 12:30-31 "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.'The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these." What an amazing legacy to leave. Lynn's eyes would sparkle when telling a story, his deep laugh and the way he prayed it felt like all Heaven shook and stopped to listen. I bet he's having a pretty great time in Heaven talking to Jesus about his rock collection. And I bet, He's probably pretty amazed to see all the lives his life has touched. The impact he's had on our life will never be forgotten and neither will he. With much love- Satya and Carmen Sivunigunta

“ Rev. D. L. White spent his entire adult life preparing for his eternal life with Jesus. He can now full well expect to hear the words of Jesus saying "well done thou good and faithful servant." What I believe will come as a surprise to Him will be when our Lord looks over Lynn's shoulder, smiles broadly and says to him - "Oh, I see you brought a lot of people with you." Until that moment Lynn had no idea of the many, many people he has touched in his short 79 years here.
