“ To the family of David Pelloli: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ David was a funny neighborhood kid I remember as my older siblings friend and an old friend of his younger sister Maria. David later was a great kind person I cared for in my place of employment. RIP David Belloli you will be missed. Many prayers go out to your family.

“ To the Belloli family,

I would like to offer my condolences and please accept my deepest sympathies. I was a close friend of Dave's during high school and throughout the 90's, but unfortunately I lost track of him thereafter. Dave and I used to do a lot of weight lifting together, he would always come over my mothers house back in the day. What I remember most about him is that he was a very likable kind hearted person. May he rest in piece and God bless his soul.

“ I met Dave almost 40 years ago in the "old neighborhood". He was always good for a laugh, his sense of humor was one of a kind. He was a really good guy all through school (and after, although we lost touch). Sending prayers to the Belloli family. God speed <3

“ I met David in 7th grade. We shared laughs and friendship through high school. I can still hear his voice...the way he would talk through his nose a little. And he was kind and put up with my eccentricities. I will miss seeing him at the reunions. I pray for healing and comfort for his family.

“ We saw Dave at Jimmy's wedding last year, and he looked happy and was joking with us, and when we left that night, the first thing I said to Joe was: "It was so good to see Dave!" and Joe agreed. We were so sorry to hear of Dave's passing. He was always quick with a joke and a smile, and that's how we'll remember him.

My condolences to the Belloli family. I have known Dave 33 years and it was very sad to hear of his passing. Dave and I use to share the same passion for working out and although it has been several years since I seen Dave I still have vivid memories of him. He was a good guy and looking at his picture brings tears to my eyes. God Bless you Dave!!!
