“ A message to the reader. What follows are great examples of God’s will; 1. A young good looking guy with pockets full of money waits outside the window he chooses to love. The window opens but then closes. Most guys would have looked to the next window. This guy chooses to remain at the window he chose. By the grace of God the window opens and with all the love a man could possess he climbs through to share. True LOVE. What a blessing. 2. Non judgemental 3. Caring 4. Patient 5. understanding 6. Compassionate. 7. Giving 8. Honest 9. Genuine 10. True. A Champion of a MAN. God’s will on display. I pray for you the reader to experience the true love that I have been privileged to witness. We are all truly blessed. Choose that window and be patient. It will open!!!!!!

“ Dear Uncle Dave, as it hurts our hearts to see you go. Only through pain & suffering do you see the glory of Heaven. You will be missed. The constant jokes we shared.. and the words you said to me when I lost Jimmy. I will never forget. Life changes and we go on our separate ways.. but any season you were in my life it was comfort. When losing your own love of your life. When losing my Dad, you were comfort. A quiet Man with not any gossip or hate. Just words, wether sales, or weather, or thanks for telling me about” that white cream in that donut Eraina! We sell more now then Custard! Well the donuts are amazing there” We all live in a mansion. All of our loved ones rejoice with you ...Welcomed Arms!!! My deepest Sympathy for The Bolter, Medley, Kliest, Martinez family’s. We have lost so many so much. But we must hold to our Lord and savior’s promise. Come resurrection day we will see you Again... Give big Hugs to everyone we miss. Love your Neice Eraina Matti-Darmis The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

“ I am so glad I had the pleasure of knowing you all these years, your calmness in the face of many challenges with coming into a family of three teenagers and your ability to go through all of those challenges with a sense of humor allowed me the ability to do the same when faced with the many challenges life brings to us.

I met you when I was eighteen and have grown up with you there and have learned how to allow things to be as they are by your example.

You are the true example of Life on Life's terms.

I will miss your jokes and your stories and also your ability to be wrong about the best quarterback in NFL history <grin>... I had to get that in one last time.

Love you and will miss you.

Your son in law Frank

“ Words cannot explain how much I will miss you, Pop-pop, and I will hold onto the memories we have forever. The donut shop, tomato and mayo sandwiches, microwaved hamburgers, your jokes, your drawings, yo-yo's, the random things you would bring for me or my children from garage sales, and SO many more that I'm just not going to list at the moment.

I'm glad that I was there with you, holding your hand, when you got to leave this journey in life and go onto your next. I believe with all my heart that Grandma was running to you with arms wide open and I find comfort in knowing you are with her. I find comfort in knowing you are no longer in pain, even though the selfish part of me wanted to keep you around forever.

You were the best pop-pop anyone could ever have and you were a darn good man. I feel sorry for those people who never truly got to know you because they will never know how great of a man and grandpa you were.

I also want you to know that you do not have to worry about Curt. He is handling everything in the ways he believes you would want and I think he's doing a great job. I'm proud of him so I know you are as well.

I love you pop-pop. I'll see you later.

“ You came into a marriage with three teenagers.(sorry lol) I bet you had no idea the kind of ride you were in for. Thank you for loving my mother the way she should of always been loved. Thanks for having the understanding with me when no one else did. Thank you for the crazy fun baked items and for making me a Easter basket even when I was to old for one. Thank you for being so excited for every birth of my children. Thank you for loving them as if they were your own blood. You were their pop-pop and the best grandfather they could of been given. I know you could not wait to be with my mom again so I'm glad you are happy and smiling again.
