“ Our sympathies to his family. David Hom and his family were very close to the Tom family. As our families grew up together they were always a welcome part of our family and a wonderful presence during holidays and birthdays. Uncle David and my father, Tommy, spent a lot of time together growing up and going to ball games. We will always remember him with fondness in the moments of yesterday.

“ My mother, Irene Mudloff, would like to offer her sincere sympathy in the passing of your father. My Dad, Harold Mudloff, and your Dad were Army buddies and would get together with the families ALONG time ago. We lived in Detroit.
