“ To the family of David Lang: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

So sad to hear this news. Dave was my neighbor for many years and I used to go and visit him while he sat outside relaxing. Sandy and Dave were wonderful and always kind. You will be missed. Mary Ellen Dillon, Johnny, Jimmy and Jenny.

“ Uncle Dave,

I release this butterfly in loving memory of you. As you fly away in the night sky you are welcomed in the light of the holy spirit.

You may not be present to touch or see, but your spirit is with us forever.

You are set free and have so many things to see and do. Tears of joy fall from my eyes thinking of all the memories we have shared with you.

I understand that it was time for you to be called home. Your life has just begun, eternal life forever and ever.

As I layed in bed listening to the rain fall last night and thunder roll through, I said " oh boy" the celebration has already begun Uncle Dave was welcomed at the heavenly gates by all our loved ones saying welcome home.

We will truly miss you and love you always and forever. When I see this butterfly, I will know you are near, watching over us so we will have no fear and bring comfort our way with the touch of your presents in everyway.

We love you!

David, Michelleane, Lexi and Jace

So many tears fall as the memories flow through my mind, as I understand that it was time for you to be called home. Your life has just begun, eternal life forever and ever. As the rain fell last night and the earth shook I see the celebration has already begun in heaven with all of the family that was waiting for you to be safely delivered home.

We will truly miss you and love you always and forever. When I see this butterfly, I will know you are near, watching over us so we will have no fear and bring comfort our way with the touch of your presents in everyway.

We love you!
