“ Big Dave!! Growing up you always found time to lend an ear or to give advice. I grew up wishing I could be half the guy you were. As a brother, there is no better. As a friend, you're just like a brother! My life here will go on, but it'll never be the same. I wish I could've told you more often how much you meant to me and how much I love you! I pray that you will only know peace and comfort and that mom is still hugging you! God Bless You big Brother! The memories I have will forever be cherished!

“ Words cannot fully express how much you are loved, and how much you'll be missed. Brother, friend. You always had my back, and front for that matter. I love you. Please continue to watch over us all, run like you used to, breathing freely that heavenly air. Oh, and give mom a hug and kiss for us. With love brother, truly, Rest In Peace.

God Bless you Dave...I am so heart broken to not spend time with you again, but I am at peace knowing that you are out of pain and can breathe easy. Give Mom a big hug, until we meet again, dear brother in law! Rest In Peace.

PS

Dear Pecoraro family,

I am very sorry to hear about the passing of Dave and wish that I could be present to offer some support. I trust that Dave is happy now and at peace.

As a child I was fortunate to grow up four houses down the street to Dave on Dover Avenue. Along with Dave were about 10 other boys of similar age and interests that formed a group fondly known as the Dover-man gang. Dave was a centerpiece of the group that did everything together from participating in seasonal sports to occasional harmless mischief. Dave was a bright guy with a big heart that always had your back and will be greatly missed.

Just a brief note to let you know that I'm thinking of you during this difficult time.
