“ Dearest Marcia;

How sad we all will be with Dave gone. He was almost always smiling with a quick joke, or wheeling around in his chair, coming by to see what we were doing when the garage was open. Mom and Frank always enjoyed his company, either when they went to your house, or when he came across to hers, when everyone was sitting on the porch. He will surely be missed.##imported-begin##Cyndi Mayer##imported-end##

“ Marcia, Dave was such a wonderful man and a great inspiration. He was funny, witty and so generous. He was so wonderful with the girls and I will forever remember the long talks in the garage and the endless jokes. We will miss him so much but yet we are so blessed to have been able to be a part of your lives. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Much love, Matt, Wendy, Brooke and Corinne##imported-begin##Matt, Wendy, Brooke and Corinne Gietzen##imported-end##

“ To David

Thank you for being an example of strength and courage. Always one to generate laughter with your wit and wisdom and for telling it like it is. You have secured a place in the memory of those who knew you as well as ensuring that you will live on in the hearts of family and friends. May The Lord bless you and keep you. Rest in Peace.

PS. I have not forgotten about the PC.

“ Dear Marcia,

We will surely miss David! He was the best neighbor we could have ever asked for. He died on the same day as my dad, so I guess they are up there having a good time.

*All our prayers are with you,

“ Dear Mrs. Polancih, sorry to hear about your husband. It seems as though he brought great cheer and happiness to his loved ones. The bible gives us hope in seeing the one's we lost to the enemy death. At Acts 24:15 it says, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous." Remember that the Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses.
