“Debbie was our neighbor here in Kentucky. She always had a smile and kind word. She was such a sweet girl, that will be missed. We loved her, and her family very much.

“Debbie was the best sister God could give a girl. Me and our brothers and Debbie would run and play as young children; we never noticed that Debbie was any different, or that it took her just a little bit longer to get there. It wasn't until my early teens that I noticed she was different, (God had sent us an angel). She was special in so many ways. She loved with ALL her heart. She loved babies and animals, chocolate and pop, swimming and Christmas music most of all, because she said she was our Christmas gift, born to our mother on Christmas Day. Over the past week before you went to heaven Debbie, I spent many many hours at your side, we talked, laughed, reminisced, sang, called old friends and we prayed to loved ones gone on ahead. I knew the angels were coming. You said you saw them above your bed. I didn't want to leave you. But this body needed rest. I was there right after your last breath and the last beat of your heart. My “sissy” had gone somewhere that I can't go yet, but I will be with you again one day, we will sit together on the beautiful front porch of your mansion and drink lemonade like you wanted to. Goodbye “D” 🦄
