

Deborah Jill Durphey Bush

June 2, 1954 - May 22, 2007

DEBORAH JILL DURPHEY BUSH, 52, of Clinton Township, died peacefully on May 22, 2007, at Beaumont Hospital in Troy, surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Warren on June 2, 1954, to William and Inez Durphey.

Deborah retired from Macomb Community College in 2005. She was a loving “mom” to her “three sons:” Blackie, Baby and Punkin’.

She is survived by husband, Robert of Clinton Township; sister-in-law, Annette (Okros) Durphey of East Pointe; brother, Robert W. Durphey, Sr., of LaBelle, FL; sister, Ann (Glenn) Finley of Washington Township; sister-in-law, JoAnn (William) Hughes, brother-in-law, Thomas (Kim) Bush, loving aunts and cousins in Virginia and California, and many devoted nieces and nephews in Michigan and New Hampshire.

She was predeceased by her mother and father; brother, William H. Durphey, Jr., niece, Shannon Durphey, and sister-in-law, Louise Durphey.

Graveside services will be held on Saturday, May 26, 2007, at 11:00 a.m. at Resurrection Cemetery in Clinton Township.

“ How do I sum up a lifetime of memories in a single paragraph? Debbie, you were the big sister I never had (minus the sibling rivalry). You went from my babysitter to one of my greatest confidants. You had the neatest sense of humor—I always got you! When I was a little girl, you showed me how to dance, and when I was growing up, you taught me how to drive. Through you, I gained an appreciation for Johnny Carson, Elvis, and The Little River Band (sorry, I never could like Queen, nor you Hall & Oates). You drove my newborn baby and me home from the hospital, grasping his tiny little hand the whole way. You were always in my corner. You were bright, witty, and imaginative. Though you never fully realized your great gifts, I always did. As one of our favorites once said, “And those are the memories that make me a wealthy soul.” Thank you for enriching my life. You have been one of my greatest blessings.##imported-begin##Shelly##imported-end##

“ I was saddened to read of Debbie's passing, she will be missed. I got to know her on a professional and personal level. She was a beautiful butterfly for many people here at macomb college. She always offered a helping hand for anyone who needed it. Debbie's sense of humor was one of a kind, she could always make you laugh no matter what was going on. My prayers and thoughts are with you. ##imported-begin##Lois Murray##imported-end##

“ I work at Macomb College and the best thing about going down to "the tunnels" was knowing you'd share a good laugh w/ Debbie. She was one of the kindest and funniest people at the college. My sincere sympathies to Debbie's family and friends (and pets).###imported-begin##Cheryl River Farrell###imported-end##

“ Debbie and I had many things in common, but our love for animals will be undying. We spoke about them, how we enjoyed them.

Debbie, I shall miss you, you always brought me comfort, along with your smile.

Debbie you are one of God's chosen Angels who will live on forever.

Thank you for the times together.

My condolences to Debbie's loved ones.

“ I'll miss Debbie a lot even though she's been gone from our office she and I talked off and on and I enjoyed keeping in touch with her and will miss her calls and the fact that she was still out there. So I don't have a DJ any more (my nick name for her while we worked together in Office Services) My prayers to all of you.
