“ Dear Family, I'm so sorry to read of the loss of your dear sister Debra . Please accept my sincere sympathy. As a former cancer patient, I truly empathize with her bout with cancer. I pray you find comfort like I have in the following Bible promises. Jesus Christ, through God's Kingdom will soon do away with death forever. God “will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces.”—Isaiah 25:8. ■ Health care will not be an issue because “no resident will say: ‘I am sick.’”—Isaiah 33:24. ■ Grieving will not be necessary, for “death will be no more.”—Revelation 21:4##imported-begin##Mrs. Houston##imported-end##

“ Dear Klusek Family,
I am very sorry for your loss, she was a very special gift from God. I first met her about 15 years ago when she was on a committee I was running for the Direct Marketing Association - Detroit. At first she was a little quiet, but then I remember when we all went to Miller's Bar in Dearborn for a Hamburger how this little waif of a woman told me she was debating whether to have 2 or 3 burgers! And then I watched her devour 2 and fries. We worked together for this volunteer group for 8 years or so and she rose to be a leader, someone you could count on to do things right, on time, under budget and with a winning smile. She did such a great job, she went on to become a board member too. We kept in touch, had a burger once in a while and when I last heard from her on Feb 29 it was about eating a hamburger at Poole's in Northville and she did not say anything about her illness. I am very sorry for your loss and that the world has lost a wonderful, kind, giving person.##imported-begin##David Marold##imported-end##

“ Dear Klusek Family:

I was so saddened to hear of her passing. I worked with Deb at both TRIO and Textron Fastening Systems. She was hard working, meticulous with her projects and treated everyone with respect. It was a pleasure to be on the same team, and an honor to call her friend. I will never forget her cakes! She would bring these fabulously decorated cakes to work... true works of art. My sympathies and condolences on the loss of your beloved sister and aunt. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Jackie Church##imported-end##

“ Deb came into my life at time I needed a savmg Angel. So God brought me Debbie. Deb was the most caring, loving, and understanding woman I ever met. Even though our time together was short. Our love grew and flourished. I will never forget you Deb. I will always love you. May the good Lord bless Deb.

“ Debra’s loss brings feelings of emptiness and much sadness to all who knew and loved her. May we find comfort in the thought that she has not been forgotten by the giver of life, the almighty God Jehovah. Please read John chapter 11 there He demonstrated that our loss loved ones like Debra can live again by means of a resurrection. Jesus, His son, assures us this will happen with his words at John 5:28-29 “The time is coming when all those who are dead and buried will hear his voice and out they will come...” Think of that, Jesus promises God’s call can awaken Debra from death! My heartfelt wish is that this message of hope brings the family peace###imported-begin##Geraldo Cafe'###imported-end##

“ Deb - It seems so strange to be writing this note - however, I am truly sorry that you suffered for so long - but knowing you - you fought like the hell to beat your illness. While I am sad that you are gone, I am grateful that you are no longer in pain or suffering. Heaven is a greater place now that you are there and I know that you will take action to ensure that there are spots for all of us when our time comes. My prayers and thoughts go to your family as they grieve on your passing - -###imported-begin##Luce Ann Mallak (Zielinski)###imported-end##

“ *For me, Deb was at first a talented and dependable co-worker able to do work-related projects with a creativeness and quality level unequalled by others. Over time she became a true friend and I came to know the kind, Christian side of her which was her greatest gift! My wife and I are saddened by her passing, but I am happy she no longer suffers. “ Dear Klusek Family: Deb was one of the greatest. most caring. loving and creative women I have ever had the pleasure to know. I am so sorry for your loss and will be keeping you close to my heart during this sad time. I am sorry that I won't be able to attend the funeral or viewing as I am going to be out of town and was unable to rearrange the dates.
Warm regards,

“ Deb - You fought a long, hard battle, and stayed brave through it all. You have won the war, however, because now you get to be with Jesus, and he will welcome you with open arms. You deserve a spot in Heaven more than most. You were a kind, dear friend, and I will miss you dearly. God bless your sweet soul, and may you forever rest in painless peace.##imported-begin##Julie Rugenski##imported-end##
