“ My condolences to all my Wolff cousins on the passing of your dad and my "God-dad, " Uncle Delmar. I have such fond memories of us getting together with a gazillion little kids all running around! When I introduced Skip as my fiancée to your dad he told me he looked like one of my brothers. We still laugh about that 43 year later! He was always the jokester! I want you to know that your dad was a great comfort and joy to my mom and dad over the years. Dad would always tell me about your folks stopping in at the house. He really enjoyed their company and it meant a lot to him! Peace and love to all of you. Let's carry on with the love of our parents as the "wind beneath our wings!"

Ed Green sure loved having you as a friend. I remember the times you and him used to sit on your front porch with a beer and talk late into the evening. Don't forget to look for him in Heaven. God bless you and your Family. Chris Green
