

Delphine T. Pioszak

March 24, 1928 - December 13, 2024

Delphine Theresa Pioszak, age 96 of Warren, passed away on December 13, 2024. She has been preceded in death by her loving husband, Thomas Pioszak, her son in law, Richard Langbeen, and her grandson, Philip Langbeen.

Delphine, also known as "Grandma Del" has left behind a loving family who will remember her as the strong, determined, kind, and loving woman that she was. She is survived by her daughter, Connie Langbeen, granddaughter Brenda Skogmann, great granddaughters Alison Corace, Annaliese Corace, and Sunniva Skogmann, and great great granddaughter, Noelle Corace.

Grandma Del will be remembered for baking pies that her grandchildren loved, and always showing up at least one hour early and in the front row to watch any play or sport that her grandchildren only took a minor part in. She was known in the community as Grandma Del, and lived independently until the age of 89 when she moved in with her daughter. She went weekly to Catholic mass and her favorite prayer was "Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep."

Family and friends will gather on Saturday, January 11, 2025, from 10:30 a.m. until an 11 a.m. Memorial Mass at St. Malachy Catholic Church, 14115 E. Fourteen Mile Road (East of Schoenherr) Sterling Heights. Interment of ashes at Assumption Grotto Cemetery in Detroit will be private.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations in Delphine's name be addressed to The American Cancer Society or St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

“ You were lovely, strong and someone everyone could rely on. Plus so many more things. You were a constant in so many peoples lives and we are so saddened that our next trip home won't have you there. I loved you , respected you and was always in awe of you and the way you carried yourself. Most of all thank you for being a wonderful mom to my mom, a great Great Grandma and for being my grandma. I will always remember you going on flower deliveries and every time I smell fresh cut flowers I think of you.

Love ,

Brenda , Ted and Sunniva
