“ Sorry to hear of dear Miss Del's passing. She was a good friend to my Mom Katie while in the Armada rehab facility. She and I also shared a birthday April 5th :)) enjoyed the conversations and bingo in her company. She and my Mom would sometimes get a bit competitive with some of the other ladies at the bingo games. Prayers for your family in the days to come. Celebrating her being with Jesus, and suffering no more.

“ What a precious lady, Delphine! She was the dear 'roomie' with our mom at Fair Acres in Armada. Gail and Donna... praying for your family as you go through this time. Your mom said she was trusting Jesus...we can trust that she is with Him now....Love Friendship and Prayers... from Katies' Family
Thinking of you and praying you often.

“ Dearest Gaila and Toyesta Dan, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your your beloved mom. She was the greatest, kind lady . She and your dad were so much fun! Together, they were so caring, they with you... always made everyone feel special. Know about how wonderful the peace she is having in God's Eternal Kingdom with Clare and Millie. Blessings I will say this stupid thing.. iff youu need something ask and it will happen. love you always lori
