“ Dear Bentley family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. As your hearts are full of grief and pain, I pray that your family will draw comfort from the promise from God found in John 5:28, 29. Here we are assured that soon our loved ones will be resurrected back to life. May God prove to be your true source for strength and hope during this most difficult time.

“ Denise fought a long and hard battle, and as Jacqueline said, "finally won." She was fortunate enough to have Team Bentley's support through and through. Team Bentley ROCKED!! Denise was so lucky to have you. She is in a much better and pain free place now, but she left part of herself here. She was so kind and thoughtful...and sent the most beautiful cards I have ever seen. She will be missed and her memories cherished forever. RIP Denise! XOXO here on earth ive known a few ,admired and loved and more but one day a while ago god brought to me one more a friend at first ,full of love ,her words and heart ablaze she fought and smiled and fought again ,but always gave and gave her heart was so huge it carried many of us in it she always gave advice and love and many of us felt it her words were wise ,kind and loving ,she always gave her all she was always there to pick us up when each of us would fall her heart was bigger than any i knew im so sad we never met but i tell the world of the awesome gal i met upon the net her name is denise bentley ,some of you know her well shes such an awesome woman but i know i dont have to tell Denise on earth was awesome and was brave as any could be i wished the world held more of her but god ony made the one and boy oh boy we will miss her when she has gone she touched so many peoples hearts but an angel she will be i remember how she helped to calm my precious ve a bond was made and hands held tight across this network here i only wished i could have gone across the pond and sat real close my dear

you will never be forgotton and im glad the pain will go i know for in gods garden your smile and love will glow we will see you in the heavens as god takes his good our earth angel may have flown but by his side you'll soon be stood we know that what you leave behind will hurt and be so sad but what an awesome mother wife and friend and gran we had there will never be another quite like our lovely De and i know that you will be partying with my ve we are sad to lose our angel but you will never be forgot your embedded on our hearts my love and there you will remain untill the lord take us and then we meet again god bless you my earth angel ,my sister ,my friend untill we meet again i will see you on the wind .

“ Denise,
You are the sister of my heart. So many memories of young girls finding their path in the world. So much laughter, a few tears, secrets, hopes, dreams. I will miss you. You were an inspiration to all and your love touched so many. Rest well, dear friend. LYLAS

“ Dearest Mother,

I love you more than words will ever express. I'm devastated of all that you will miss but am blessed of all we have shared. You fought a tremendous battle and, in the best way, have won. We all love you and will miss you in our hearts forever. Although we prepare to say goodbye to you, we have not lost you completely. I love you.

*Love always,
Your daughter,
Jacqueline*
