“ Dan and Family,

Sorry I could not be there in person, but you have my deepest sympathies. I had just seen Denise with one of your daughters at the Credit Union a month or two ago. She was bubbly as ever, a joy to talk with.

Peace to you and your family as you go through this difficult time.

*God Bless,

“ Denise was my first best girlfriend. We lived next door to each other on Lutz when we were small children and our parents were great friends as well as the other neighborhood families. We had so many good times and I hold the memories of the time Denise and I spent together very dear to my heart.

*With heartfelt sympathy and love,

“ Sheila and Mike Cushing

Our sincere condolences to the family and friends of Denise.

As my Mom was Denise's godmother, we recall Denise coming to visit every Christmas Eve day to share holiday greetings and good times.

We will be in Washington DC this week, and will be unable to attend the wake and services, which we very much would have liked to do.

Best regards, with our thoughts and prayers.

“ *Dan and Family,
I was so sorry to hear about Denise. When Jim and I first moved into our house by 24 and Romeo Plank in 2001 we attended Mass at St. John Vianney, which later became our parish. At that time Denise was a solo singer there and I couldn't believe what a beautiful voice she had. I was always glad when she sang at the Mass we went to. After Mass I introduced myself to her and then shortly after that she had to leave because of medical problems. I so missed her.
May you rest in peace, Denise.

“ Thinking this past week of all of our adventures we had growing up. I can honestly say how lucky i was to have you in my life. With out your persistence i wouldn't of meet some people or done some things in my life. I am so happy that we got together just a few weeks ago. I will never forgot all the memories. Rest in peace Denise.

“ I will forever miss my long time friend. It's hard to accept that we will no longer be sharing our daily lives. We road the roller of life together and supported one another through it all. We laughed, we cried, and laughed some more. RIP!
