

Dennis John Stellman

October 26, 1942 - February 9, 2024

Dennis John Stellman, a beloved member of the New Baltimore community, peacefully passed away at the age of 81 on Friday, February 9, 2024. Born on October 26, 1942, in Detroit, Michigan to John C. Stellman and Margaret A. (Hudek) Stellman, Dennis led an accomplished life with various successful careers. He served as a dedicated Police Officer in the City of East Detroit and later became a respected high school principal in the Roseville Public Schools. However, his true passion and pride came from being the owner of Nu Way Automatic Vending. Dennis was an exceptional individual who loved his community and friends. He passionately participated in multiple organizations and causes, going above and beyond to make a difference. It was at Life Christian Church where he found solace and actively contributed to its growth. Not only did Dennis give back selflessly, but he also cherished the moments spent with his loved ones. His presence brought joy and warmth to the lives of those around him. Now, with his absence, a profound void remains in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing and loving him dearly.

Dennis is survived by his brother, John Stellman Jr. (Mary), and predeceased by sisters JoAnn and Elaine Stellman. Loving father of Michael (Kimberly) Stellman, Wesley (Marie) Stellman, Jeffrey (Kristyn) Stellman, Brian Stellman, Christopher (Stacy) Stellman, Jeremy (Nicole) Herrington, and Ben (Lesa) Herrington. Adored grandfather of Corey (Olivia), Michael (Nickie), Marina

(Eni), Dylan, Gino (Krysteena), Katie, Bryce, Makenzie, Sophie, Savana, Caden, and Conner. Proud great grandfather of Charlotte and Cayden. Dear uncle of Margaret, Jessica, Nick, and Julie. Loved by Mary Grace Stellman (Bommarito), Connie, Pamela, and Brenda. Best friend of Molly Zornow.
