“ To all the Zella Family I was so sorry to hear my cousin passed away. It has been a while since I have seen him but with the pictures of him I have looked at he still has that beautiful smile. Oh what brought back memories is the picture of Louise (Lu Lu) which we all called her Linda My brother Frank and I was also in that picture. Oh how times goes by. I'm sure he has a lot of loved ones just waiting for him. Keeping you all in my prayers. Hugs Gloria J Crocker

“ Wanda and Family,

Dennis was an inspiration to us. He was always so positive and so supportive.

When my furnace went out in the middle of the winter and I was out of state on business Dennis was there to help get it back on line again.

When our lawn needed maintenance Dennis was there to make it look great.

When I ran my boat out of gas in the middle of Anchor Bay Dennis launched his boat and brought me 5 gallons of gas, got my boat running again and made sure I made it back to the dock.

When we thought our neighborhood needed Christmas lights... Dennis, Joe and I went out to the entrance in the freezing cold and put up Christmas lights several years in a row.

On the 4th of July you could count on Dennis and Wanda to throw a nice party and cook lots of food for everyone.

When we thought it would be fun to build a major Halloween display Dennis was there doing most of the work as well as distributing food donations to charity.

Dennis was always there for us and for his family and all his friends.

He will be missed!

“ Wanda and family, we send our love during this time of your great loss. Dennis's shoes can never be filled, but the smiles of the heart will forever be the memory that makes you smile for no reason at all. His loss on earth is trying, but his arrival in heaven is glorious. Our thoughts and prayers for you Wanda and family as you walk in love and sadness from loss of husband, dad and grandpa. “ *Wanda & Family,
So many memories! Game nights, cruising in the Mustang, backyard gatherings and of course the infamous Luau! Dennis was truly one of a kind. Always willing to lend a hand. Our Halloween parties and displays were the most fun, so many laughs. We both have lost a GREAT friend. Sending hugs and prayers, Roxanne &

“ *To Wanda and Dennis's family....
Our thoughts of Dennis are many....
He was a kind and gentle man, always there to offer a helping hand.
We will always remember the great Halloween parties....lots of fun, many laughs.
We also will remember the Woodward Dream Cruise, gathering at the American Legion tent before the classic car parade, as well as Uncle Ed's with spots for the Mustang as well as other classic cars where we watched the cars on Woodward.
God rest your soul, Dennis....
