“ My Dear Alex. I'm just so speechless and my eyes are all fogged up at this moment. Such a tragic and unexpected shock. She was the greatest fighter I've ever known. She enjoyed life so fully everyday and yet, so soon. Unbelievable. I was just now missing you two and googling to see if I could find you and.....this. So sorry I am and pray for you to have strength and patience to carry on.

“ I feel so blessed that I was even able to know Diane. We talked on the phone and exchanged emails always with the promise of getting together for lunch. I'm sorry to say that never happened because I would love to have spent time with her. She was one of the most beautiful people I've ever had the pleasure of meeting and she will be truly missed!! To her Mom, my heart cries for you as I too have a daughter who was very ill with cancer and Praise God, her life was spared. I feel your pain and can only say, I'll pray for you!###imported-begin##Sandy Lumley - Rochester Telemessaging Center###imported-end##

“ Diane used to work for my father, Brad Patch, at TACOM in Warren a few years back. Over the years she developed a close relationship with my late mother, Bonnie Patch... who passed away from cancer in May of 2006. Whenever my mom would come to Michigan to visit my daughter's and I, she would make a point to have lunch with Diane, a wonderful person whom she considered a very good friend. Perhaps the two of them are up in heaven now having a glass of wine and a few laughs...

Diane had a heart of gold, a selfless character and genuinely cared about people. She had a very positive impact on many peoples lives and will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Shannon Cavanagh (Patch)##imported-end##

“ *It Is Good To Wait in Silence for the Lord God to Save:
Lamentations 3:17-26
My soul is deprived of peace, I have forgotten what happiness is; I tell myself my future is lost, all that I hoped for from the LORD. The thought of my homeless poverty is wormwood and gall; remembering it over and over leaves my soul downcast within me. But I will call this to mind, as my reason to have hope: the favors of the LORD are not exhausted, his mercies are not spent; they are renewed each morning, so great is his faithfulness. My portion is the LORD, says my soul; therefore will I hope in him. Good is the LORD to one, who waits for him, to the soul that seeks him; it is good to hope in silence for the saving help of the LORD.##imported-begin##Alfonso Estraca##imported-end##*
