I'm so sorry to hear that Diane lost this battle but I know how much love she had from her family. I will miss her Facebook posts and I'm so happy I had the privilege of knowing her. I will keep her family in my prayers.

“ When we first moved to Detroit, I met this wonderful family who lived next door. I didn't know how much they would change my life and welcome me and then welcome my brand new baby boy 2 weeks later as their family. Diane and the kids watched Dane from the time he was born until he was 4 when we moved to S. Carolina. He would call her aunt Diane, but she was more like his grandma. She taught him so much.. and we loved her so much. We all had fun times with her and her mom and Kelly at Bingo, we laughed all the time. They boys were like his uncles. Diane taught me how to make some of her wonderful dishes, which i still make. We may have not seen each other in years, but she was and will forever be in our hearts and we will never forget her. She was one of the strongest women i know. May you rest in peace beautiful angel.. you will forever be with us..
