“ I had the honor and pleasure of being Dolores' son-in-law for over forty-two years.

She was as sweet, kind and generous as any person could be.

A few years ago, I heard about Mother's-in-Law Day.

That year I made her a card and composed the follow to her:

I CALL YOU...

MOM

Since the day I married your daughter in the summer of '76 I've called you Mom.

Though born from tradition, through the years the meaning has become so much more.

Over time our relationship has become one of a Mother and son.

Sharing in and praising my successes.

Comforting in times of trouble and defeat.

I am thankful to have you in my life.

I love you Mom and will miss you every day.

My two Moms drinking a Guinness in Dublin, Ireland. Couldn't get any better, except when we called Steve - stuck working in Warren, MI - to let him know we were thinking of him!
