“ Oh, Laura. I'm so sorry to hear about your Mom. I have been praying for her and I believe the Good Lord has taken care of your Mother. I can't even imagine what everlasting life is like but firmly believe your Mother has been given this Godly gift. I'm shedding a tear as I try to imagine the transformation from an earthly life to one with God. I wish I could give you a hug to let you know I'm sorry for your pain, that of Donna, Russ, your nephews and the rest of your family. Maybe our two Mom's can talk.

I'm sorry I won't be able to make the visitation or the funeral as I am taking the family to Kentucky tomorrow for Michael's school competition on Saturday and we come back Sunday. I'm so sorry I cannot see you during this terribly sad time to let you know how much of a great friend you are and try to ease your burden. May God bless your Mother and help your family to see the blessings we have been given. I'm so sorry, Laura.

Love,

Paul and Karen##imported-begin##Paul Russo##imported-end##
