“ I wanted to say how sorry i was to hear of your Mom passing away..."Auntie" Dolores was definitely my favorite...and i know she was always my Mom's (Caroline Balester) best friend...Auntie Dolores was always there when anyone in my immediate family passed away...my Mom...My Dad...my sister-in-law Patti and she drove 2 hours to see my brother Lou when he passed away in 1999...unfortunately i was out of town when she passed and i couldn't be there but my thoughts and prayers are with you right now and when i get back i'd like to call and possibly stop by either Joey or Jackie's house and drop off a mass card when you're ready to accept visitors..i feel so badly that i cant be there but know that I loved your Mom very much Thank you and again i'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Hi my name is Shaunta. i did not personally know the person the has passed away, but i wanted to share some encouraging thoughts from the bible to help you to cope. One thing that helps me to deal is what is being brought out in Ecclesiastes 9:5, and John 11:11. Those scriptures bring out how those who have died, are not conscious of anything, and how they are at rest, sleeping. they are no longer going through any pain, they have no negative thoughts, or positive, and are just a rest. Some people grieve because they wish they could tell the person one last thing, or could hold them one last time. The bible tells us at John 5:28,29 " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs(dead ones) will hear my voice, and will come out". Isn't this a time to look forward too? A time when we will see our dead loved ones again. Again, i am sorry about your loss. Its normal to go through a grieving process and take the time to do so. If you have Any questions about the bible, what happens at death , or how to cope, feel free to write me at ShauntaBraxton@yahoo.com###imported-begin##Shaunta Braxton###imported-end##
