“ As long as he is remembered, He is not gone.

Hopi Prayer
-author unknown

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am the thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint in the snow.
I am the sunlight on the ripened grain.
I am the autumn's gentle rain.
When you awaken in the morning hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush.
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there,
I did not die.

“ I don't think I've ever known a more genuine, kind soul. He and my brother Dave had an affinity for lemon meringue pies. On the few occasions I came through with them, it was as if I'd given him gold. I hope there's a surplus in heaven for you and Dave. I'm so glad the two of you are reunited.

“ Rest In Peace Uncle Dom. You join your brothers in paradise. You were a man of great faith, love, and integrity ...a model that all men should fashion themselves by. In expressing my gratitude for having you as my uncle, I utter these three words that I have heard you say countless times and has basically become your mantra...
“Thank You Jesus!”

“ Donzino was both a friend and a mentor. Back in the early '70s I work for Don at automatic parking devices. He taught me not only a lot about parking but concrete work. And I heartening up and started the Ice company currently in operation.

Those of us that you done know he was both a gentleman, a kind-hearted soul, always willing to help. I attended many family gatherings in the Italian tradition they always large and well attended. He will be missed

“ Your Dad sold me one of my first cars - a 1963 Dodge Dart station wagon. It needed brakes and tires, so my Dad helped me replace the brakes, and I picked up four tires from Kmart at 9 Mile & Harper for $44! I think your Dad got a kick out of seeing me driving that old car around town. That car was one of the most reliable cars I ever had!

Uncle Don was a great man. I always enjoyed seeing him when the family was together. He and Aunt Doreen raised a loving family. We will miss you. Say Hi to my Dad up there. Miss him too.

What a blessing to have known Domiano. We shared many stories, and blessings together. I've never met a more generous or faithful man. The world is a better place because of him and his good deeds. May his legacy live on in all who knew him.
