“ To Tony, Frances and Family, I attended St Philip NERI where I was just in middle school and Dominic was in high school there. Dominic was very well known and loved by all. He was the guys guy, friend whom I looked up to along with our other Sicilian friends at St Philip NERI school, Under the rule of Father Ulenberg. Dominic and I were together once again, and shared time together as members of the Italian American delegates. Along with all of our other friends, whom we know well. While in the IAD I gave Dominic a custom name from me
“Father Menico” our headmaster/ sergeant at arms for the younger guys like myself he was our mentor from our previous generation. We enjoyed his wit and humor!
Dominic will be sorely missed, love and Blessings to him and your families
Sincerely
