“ Voss family enjoyed to have Don and Nancy as perfect neighbors for 15 years. Don assisted us with many home projects, always with helpful advice and second eye to do it right. We listened to his hunting stories and military service was a common topic for us. Always in good spirit to lend life experience advice. Sorry we did not kept in touch more often after we moved to Clinton Twp. But each time traveling to Ludington we were passing road to Don's and Nancy's cottage we remembered very warmly stay over night in the cottage and the smoked whole beef tenderloin steak on outside fireplace. We never had so flavorful steak before!
We hope he is resting peacefully watching from high over his family.
With love Robert and Liz Voss

“ So sorry to hear of Don's passing. Prayers are with you and your family. I remember sleepovers with Sue, and Mr. H. getting ready for work and Mrs. H. making yummy cookies. God needed another angel.

“ We will miss seeing you on your front porch, ready for a chat and sharing hunting stories. We so enjoyed going up north to the cabin and the boat ride on the lake. Happy hunting grounds, dear friend.
