“ How lucky I was to meet Don when I was a young man in the 70’s.. What a great role model he was for me and so many others over the years. A great family man with a wonderful sense of humor. He will missed by many. Jim Lewis

Dear Laurie and Family,
My deepest and heartfelt condolences for your Father’s passing, yet I know our Heavenly Father is with each and everyone of you providing comfort and peace! Your Dad is a wonderful person and is celebrating Jesus in the Heavenly Realm. My heartfelt prayers for your sweetheart mother and to everyone. The saddest part are those left behind who are grief stricken beyond words! My deepest sympathy and love for everyone!❤️❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏

Here in St Clair Shores, it is of a heavy heart with the passing of Don Sly, my neighbor and friend of over 30 years. Don and wife Joan, are the most likable people I have ever known. I miss the countless conversations we had over the decades. Don's easy going nature and kindness toward people will never be forgotten. Knowing that I will not hear his voice again brings sorrow to my spirit. Rest in peace, good friend.
