“ Mark & Patricia, My husband and I want to let you know our thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time of the loss of your father. My father, John Yasechak, knew Ron in Sykesville when they were kids and then after moving to Detroit. I met Ron when he visited the funeral home when my Dad passed away in August, 2005. May God give you and your family the comfort of His presence through this time of great sorrow. -- Joan and John Foglyano##imported-begin##Joan and John Foglyano##imported-end##

“ Dear Mark, I was sorry to learn of the passing of your father Ron. I appreciate your response. We spent the past week at our daughter's in CT, so were unable to attend the funeral. I would have been there if I could have. My brother John Michael Koval just learned and would have attended as well. I knew Ron over 50 years and knew your mother Pat as well as we all were connected with the choir at St. Nicholas Church on E. Grand Blvd. He will be greatly missed as he was such an interesting and lively man.##imported-begin##Dorothy Koval Grant, Plymouth, MI##imported-end##

I am the daughter of one of your father's first cousins, Helen Kohut.

“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. In Revelation 21:4 Jehovah God promises a time when "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Jehovah God also promises a time where "all those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected. (John 5:28) What a joyous time we have to look forward to when you will be able to see and be with your dear loved one again!###imported-begin##Gregory Nolf##imported-end##
