“ Hello, My Name is Sheila, I didn't personally know your beloved Donata, but I would like to extend my condolences to your family, as I do know the grief and sadness associated with death. Therefore, I would like to leave an encouraging thought from the Bible that helped me. It's at John 5:28, which says, "...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrection of life.." So, soon in the near future the bible promises a time that we will see our loved ones that we have lost in death, including your loved one Donata! I hope that this will bring you comfort during your time of need. If you have any questions regarding what the Bible teaches about Death and a future hope of seeing our loved ones again, please feel free to contact me.-biblestudent0910@att.net###imported-begin##Sheila###imported-end##

“ I am very sad to hear that Dee has left us as I think she was the sweetest person I have ever met in my life. Every Saturday after bringing Jimmy home from bowling I was witness to the sweetest motherly bond I've ever seen between a mother and son. She was also blessed with 2 loving and helpful daughters. In the short time I have known her, Dee sure has made an impact on me and I will never forget her sweet, caring and gentle way. Heaven just became a little more sweeter upon her entrance. God bless her and all of her family.##imported-begin##Arlene Walczak##imported-end##

“ Michelle Costello - February 6th, 2011 at 1:02pm - Email
My sincere condolences to all Dee's (Ms. Gentile's) family. Dee was so kind and gentle. In 1977, I was a "New" teacher, who was a little apprehensive, yet very excited. Dee (Ms. Gentile) was the Para- Pro in the classroom I was assigned to. She was a gift! What a wonderful experience she helped me to have. Both staff and students loved her! I'm still in the classroom today. Thanks Dee!##imported-begin##Michelle Costello##imported-end##
