“ Our friend Doris is with our Lord, something she said she would accept at any time. Sisters in Christ, she and I agreed that we all need to treat each day as our last. Always sharing God’s love, every day, and in every way. She and Bill have been a big part of our many prayer warriors during our daughters illness. The Lord truly blessed us all when they stepped into our lives. She has strengthened our testament of faith with her friendship and her unbounding love of Christ. We had our small group on Tuesday and she came in singing one of her songs of God, with her radiant smile as she always did. She and I could banter with the best of them, as we knew God just had to have a sense of humor . Each and every one of us in our small group will truly miss her and her unending contribution to our bible lesson. She and Bill are truly teachers for Christ. We ask for God’s mercy, strength and healing for her loved ones during this time. In His love, Kay and Don

“ Doris you taught us all. I am a better person because you are in my life. I will miss you very much. I was waiting for you Thursday mourning for our coffee. You were late that was not like you. I called your home and fond out the evening before God reached His hand to you and brought you home. I will be looking forward to our coffee together when I reach our true home with you. I LOVE YOU DORIS

“ One cannot think of Doris without picturing her with a smile on her face. Her joy was contagious and encompassed everyone around her. She modeled what a Christ follower looked like, was a devoted and loving wife and mother and had such a loving heart for her friends. One of my earliest experiences as a grown up returning to church involved Bill. The next experience involved Doris. It was during a prayer walk around King of kings and this 'baby' Christian who had never opened a bible, somehow found herself walking with Doris. As we walked, she prayed Scripture, sang and called upon the very heavens to bless the prayer walk, I was so awed. I was amazed at ALL the Scripture Doris knew by heart. And couldn't help but think of how far out of her league I was. And that was the point. Doris walked alongside many young Christians, making sure our feet stayed on God's path. Giving us a glimpse of what could be ours if our pursuit of God was a priority. Forever I will be grateful to Doris, and to Bill, for showing me and so many others how life here is to be lived.....as a temporary place to do good, show God's mercy and Jesus' love, until Heaven becomes ours. Thank you, Doris, for more than I could ever express. May God's comfort and strength be with you, Bill, and your family. Love,

Sue,

You have such a gift with words. We met Doris about the same time, like you I was a "baby Christian" but it was impossible to stay that way the more you were around Doris. Her smile, laugh, wit, passion & love for the Lord was so contagious, I always wanted a piece of that. I was a bit intimidated by her at first but grew to love her. She has left such a imprint in my heart and legacy I will never forget. I will treasure each day no matter what lies before me because it is a gift. I will love with more zest, forgive with more sensitivity, listen with more intent, memorize my scripture, sing praises to the Lord wherever I am. I vow to try and be a Woman of Substance like my dear friend Doris. Thank you my friend for giving so much of yourself. Bill, I have a question, did you ever have a chance to disagree??? ha ha just kidding. I thank God every day for the two of you, He put you both in my life at just the right time. God's timing is always perfect.

*You have been blessed with a beautiful family Bill & incredible memories, I pray this brings you comfort in the days to come...
.....In his love, Fran Bingham*

“Doris lit up any room she was in but never did it for the attention; it was just who she was -- a warm, loving woman who treated us like family the moment we met. We have so many fond memories of her from all the King of king events especially the staff Christmas parties – she had all of us in stitches every year. Our hearts are broken but know she is smiling down on all of us.

“ I LOVE DORIS! I remember how much she loved the Lord and would lift her hands and sing her heart out to the Lord. The hands and feet of Jesus Doris was a wonderful volunteer at King of Kings Lutheran Church and an awesome friend. I so appreciated her and Bills help checking in kids to Vacation Bible School, all the while with a smile. She shared her memories of Via DiCristo with me and I always thought very fondly of her. When we left the King of Kings Congregation I still thought of her and Bill often, and with Love in my heart I always felt quite close to both of them. My biggest regret is not carving time out of my busy schedule to fit in a visit here and there. Bill I love you too and am praying the Lord will help give you and your family the strength to get through this difficult time. I think of Doris singing with all the Angels in Heaven and meeting Jesus with a bright big smile! I hope that vision will give you some peace, as it does me. Rest in Peace my Sister in Christ and Love and Hugs to the Bond, Stromme, and Sand families. XXOO Kari
