“ Dorothy was my volunteer in the Occupational Health Department at Holy Cross (NorthEast) Hospital. She was a hard worker who shared stories about her family as she preformed any task that I asked of her. She was a very special lady & I'm sure that the angels sang a little louder the day that she arrived in Heaven. I am a better person for having known Dorothy.##imported-begin##Patt Saura##imported-end##

“ Mrs Dorothy,

We will miss our Sunday morning breakfasts together and the special things you did (like give us special cookies at our ladies meetings). Thank you for always remembering our birthdays. We will miss you!
