“ Dear Ron & Melanie,

You're mom, my dearest Aunt Dorothy, will fondly be remembered as a most pleasant presence in my life, especially during childhood. What a treat it was to go visit her at Christmastime and sit in her kitchen knowing she would bring out a HUGE delectable assortment of yummy cookies and treats she had made. When she came to visit, I can clearly remember when my dad (Clem Janusch) asked her how she was she would say, with a mischievous grin, "as usual, fat and sassy". And most of all, how BEAUTIFUL she was! Always "picture perfect"... her hair, clothes, everything; in a way that I still aspire to back when and to this day.

The close friendship she had with my mother, Virginia (Tessler) Janusch, was a blessing to witness. It was funny to them how one day, through conversation, they discovered that they had no blood ties. It didn't matter and perhaps made their friendship even more special. I will always treasure their example of friendship.

*You're mom and I spoke of family last fall, when I called her to gather information for an English research paper on my mother's side of the family. Our conversation quickly got off topic and became familiar with her asking about my health and my asking about hers. Despite our age difference, we shared the experience and frustration of not being able to keep up with life. I'm glad her frustration is gone! It was comforting to hear her distinct voice at the time, and will now remain as a precious gift to cherish.

Needless to say, I will her so...

Chris (Janusch) Hiben

“ There are so many things grandma will be remembered for, one of which is her sweet loving ways. Another being her skill and gift of baking and cooking. I will miss her so much but find solace knowing that she is no longer suffering and is reunited with grandpa in heaven. Much Love; your blue eyed baking helper, animal care taker, and gardener. <3 @---->----- "Melonia"
