Dori and I attended, and graduated from, the Detroit Police Academy, Class 71-I on June 21, 1971. We became fast, close, and steady friends during those early years on the Force. She was always a joy. Like Jim Montgomery, whom I remember, I'll never forget the courage she manifested in her daily work, and as an undercover narcotics officer. I remained with the DPD Women's Division until 1974, when I left for California. I still have Dori's high school photo, our class photos, et. al. I am very sorry to learn she has crossed over. A bright light in the world can now only be seen in the heavens. She has, and always will be, in my heart.

*Blessings and gratitude for your friendship and service, Dori.

“ Dori, I was so saddened to see your passing in the RDPFFA newsletter. I remember you from your earliest days in the police academy and your courage as an undercover narcotics officer. You were a joy to be around and I know you are missed by all who knew you. Jim Montgomery

“ Stumpy took me to meet Dori, he told me how tough she was and how much Stump loved her then I met Dori. Amy was a toddler playing on the floor funny and happy and Dori was so kind to me. Geoff was a great guy and Dori was truly one of those wonderful people to me. A great Mom and Geoff was always a great guy. I hope all the wonderful memories will be a blessing. I was blessed to have known her Eve Marston
