“ I hope that God will enjoy him in heaven as much as we did here on this earth. He was a terrific person to work with and work for. Never at a loss to find a jovial slant on the worst of situations. Fly high my friend, and save a place in the hangar for me.

“ To The Mousty Family,
I know you knew this day was coming... but it is very difficult to endure the loss of a husband, a brother, a father and a grandfather, who is loved so much. I'm very sorry to hear of Duane's passing. He was a wonderful person and he will be greatly missed.
Sincerely,
Mary Ellen Gray###imported-begin##Mary Ellen Gray ###imported-

“ Kevin, my deepest condolence. Jim Ptacek shared the news, and I wanted to let you know that even though our shared past here at the university is a way back, the bond remains - and the shared hope in a God whose love is stronger than death. I'll carry you and your family close to my heart especially these days as we all begin the slow walk toward Easter.

PEACE

“ For you Dad-

HIGH FLIGHT

By Pilot Officer John G. Magee Jr.

Oh! I have slipped the surely bonds of earth

And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;

Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth

Of sun-split clouds – and done a hundred things

You have not dreamed of – wheeled and soared and swung

High in the sunlight silence. Hov'ring there,

I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung

My eager craft through footless halls of air.

Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue

I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace

Where never lark, or even eagle flew –

And, while with silent lifting mind I've trod

The high untrespassed sanctity of space,

*Put out my hand and touched the face of God.##imported-
