“ Grandpa-I have many great memories of you and I. When I was little and would come to visit, you always put diapers on my dolls, it still makes me laugh today. You had a great sense of humor and I will always cherish the times we had together. You were a great grandfather and I will miss you more than you know! I know in my heart that your in a much better place, re-united with past loved ones and family. I know you will watch over me and the rest of the family. And I know I will see you again someday in heaven. Love always and forever, your granddaughter,

“ To Ying Shu, Barbara, Robert and Richie; Ashley and Ethan, to all the spouses and family and friends....I am so sorry for your loss, Duwayne was my father in law for many years and was always there to help and guide me, we did so many projects together and I was always learning from him...life can be too short but we all need to remember all the good times and things we did with Duwayne...it is not where we go or what we do....it is who we do it with that counts...May God his newest angel and may God bless all of you always and in all ways....Smile and rejoice his life and wait until we can see him again in Heaven....Will miss you my friend,
