

Dylan Joseph Seguin

September 28, 1996 - August 5, 2018

Dylan Joseph Seguin, born September 28, 1996, passed away on August 5, 2018 at the age of 21.

Dylan was the kind of person that you are lucky to meet once in a lifetime. Dylan loved deeply and was incredibly caring. He was someone you could talk to for hours about anything. He was so smart and knowledgeable about so many different things.

He had the best sense of humor, and he was constantly making others laugh. Music was his passion, and he was talented at freestyling. His family and close friends meant everything to him.

Loving son of Kristina (Marini) and Daniel Seguin. Dear brother of Daniel and Hunter. Dear grandson of Geraldine (the late Bernard) Marini and Louise (the late Carl) Seguin. Dear nephew of Carmen (Matthew) Gates, Diane (Michael) O'Hara, Joseph (Janelle) Marini, Francine (Steven) Wolak, Carolyn (Tim) Hayduk, Cindy (Steve) Nadolski and Sandy (Jeff) Guerra. Loving cousin of Phillip, Kara (Tristan), Alexa, Lauren, Jady, the late Christopher, Samantha, Matthew, Joseph, Tara (her son-Grayson), Shelby, Tyler, Steven, Ashley, Amanda, Asia, and Anthony. Dylan will also be sadly missed by many other loving family members and his dear friends. Memorial donations may be directed to the Family. “ My deepest sympathies to everyone in your family. I pray that God's great love and mercy keep you today and in all the days to come. I pray for God to strengthen those you will lean on or turn to for comfort and guidance during your time of grief. I pray God gives them the right words to encourage and lift you up when you need it. Losing a love one is not something we "get over". Its a journey we go through. I pray that Dylan is now safe in the arms of his heavenly Father, free from the pain and sorrows of this world. I pray God watches over each of you and blesses you with the grace, peace, mercy and LOVE.

“ Dylan,
I don't even know what to say. It still doesn't seem real. I don't know if it ever will. I don't know how I am going to be able to handle losing another cousin. This comes from not only me, but from my whole family. Phil, Alexa, and our parents. May you rest in peace, my Dylan McMillan (I will never forget grandpa calling you that, and I hope you guys are together again. Knowing that is the only possible way things can be okay again).
Please know how much you were loved, and how much we are going to all miss you.
We love you. Always.

“ It seems like only yesterday our family went through this tragic event with our son Christopher. It was only with the love and support of our wonderful family that we were able to survive this. Everyone was there to help us in every way possible.

We heard the words so sorry for your loss so many times I never wanted to hear those words again, people don't know what to say, what can you say ? Just the fact that they are here for you is all that matters and you need to feed off of that, they just want to help you so please let them. To Tina and Danny no words could ever express everything you did for our son and how you carried on his memory with the famous bike run we all were a part of. We have so many happy memories of big family holidays with the kids and so many crazy stories. I'm am grateful that we have all of these wonderful memories because we will all talk about them every time were together.

Dylan was able to touch all of our hearts in his own special way, a way that stays in your heart forever and no one can ever take that away from us. Even though he he can't say I love you right now doesn't mean anything, you already know in your heart he is saying it.

I want to share this for anyone that has not heard this yet, a few years ago Dylan went on a date and apparently had a great time, he came back into the house with a huge smile dancing and singing the words " I'm in Love" "I'm in Love" and I don't care who knows" (from the movie Elf) Classic Dylan.

You are still here in our hearts and will always be with us.
We love you

Uncle Steven, Aunt Francine, Samantha and of course Christopher

Dylan was a beautiful soul. A loving and emotionally deep young man with a wicked sense of dry humor. He loved to share his many stories with great gusto. On the outside he presented a tough exterior, but beyond that he was compassionate and kind hearted person. I will miss his sarcasm and wit, his smile and humor, and his wisdom belong years. I feel truly blessed to have known him, even for a brief time. My heart is broken for his families loss, but I know he will always be with them and with us. Thank you Dylan for the time you spent brightening my days with your humor and the lessons you taught me in the brief time I got to know you. Love always, Cameron.

*Dylan was a little ray of sunshine for me here. I am the house Chef and love cooking for these boys. Dylan was always so grateful and thankful. I will miss his sweet soul.
My DEEPEST sympathies to his family.*
