“ My husband Al & I met Earl & Linda about 8 yrs ago. He loved calling my husband Alvin ( as in & the chick munks) . We really enjoyed knowing their whole family. Earl would always offer Al moonshine from down south, he always said this is REAL shine, not that store bought stuff. He always said a good word about everyone . He will be greatly missed. Our heart's go out to Earl's

“ We lived across the street from the Franklins growing up. They were more like family to us for sure. I got my love of motorcycles from Earl at a very young age. He was a really good guy and i know how much he will be missed. RIP Earl.
