

Edith Roberta Martini

December 6, 1932 - April 14, 2026

Edith Roberta Martini, age 93 of Chesterfield, passed away April 14, 2026.

Born on December 6, 1932, in Morgantown, West Virginia, Edith was the beloved daughter of John Mann and Anita Shiflett. She was a devoted and loving mother to Nadeen (Terence) Bruce and a proud grandmother to Mitchell Bruce, Tristin (Savannah) Bruce, and Adrian Bruce. Edith was also a dear sister to Gordon Harrier and is lovingly remembered by her 15 nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her former husband and Nadeen's father, Raymond Martini, and her brothers Joseph Harrier, John (Jack) Harrier, and Truman Harrier.

Throughout her life, Edith was enveloped in the warmth of family and faith. She was an ardent woman of Christian values, known for her love of hymns and devotion to her church community through the choir and church orchestra. Her passion for music came alive through her talent in playing the piano and cello. Edith's love for reading, gardening, and cooking enriched her life and those around her.

Edith dedicated much of her life to a successful career in the Medical Insurance industry, retiring in 1991. Her retirement was marked by selfless contributions to others as she volunteered with Social Services, aiding families in need, and continuing to exemplify her deeply caring nature.

Edith found delight in listening to swooner, Gospel, and Symphonic music, often filling her home with these comforting melodies. Her gentle spirit and generous soul made a lasting impression on everyone she met.

A private memorial service will be held at a later date to honor Edith's life and legacy.

Her light will continue to shine in our hearts and her memories will be cherished forever. May her soul rest in eternal peace.

“ Edith was so very proud of her family! She delighted in being with them all. Her sparkling blue eyes said it all at her Grandson Tristan's wedding reception- because she finally had a GrandDAUGHTER- Savannah! Oh how she liked to tell stories- tell you all about it! We all miss her very much! Friends forever- David and Diane Michelson
