“ Marie,

I was so sorry to hear that your father had passed away. I had wondered when I didn't see either of you in church yesterday. My prayers are with you and your family. Even though he was ill, it is still so difficult to say good-bye. What a comfort to know he is in heaven, singing praises to his King!

Let us know if you need anything.

*God's comfort and blessing to you,
Rachel###imported-begin##Rachel Reiff###imported-end##*

“ Dear Marie and Bob:

*My prayers and thoughts are with you as you walk through another of life's transitions. Jesus will be near to you. Rest in his presence. His peace will be your comfort. I will pray that the body of Christ will rise up and surround you with Christ's presence in a physical way. That is our job. Sometimes we do it well and sometimes we get preoccupied with things that don't matter in an eternal way. My prayer is that the body will shine for you as you walk through a time that can be dark. Know that you are loved and prayed for.
