Edmund T. Piskor, of Warren, passed away on December 18, 2020 at the age of 99, six months shy of 100 full years of life. He was born May 3, 1921 in Detroit, Michigan to John and Agnes (nee Hildebrandt) Piskor.

In 1942, Edmund married his love, Eugenia at St. Mary Church in Parisville, Michigan. Together they would spend 55 full years together. To this union brought 4 children.

He was a longtime member of the American Polish Century Club in Sterling Heights and John W. Smith Oldtimers Club. He was the former owner of Heavy Eddies Bar, Mr. Ed's Lounge and Green Oaks Bar.

Edmund's greatest joy was spending time with his family. The wisdom and life lessons he learned in his almost 100 years was passed onto to his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and a great great grandson. He built a strong legacy that will be carried on for many generations to come.

“ Though I was fortunate enough to see him during a couple of my most recent visits to Michigan, including at his lakeside house in Port Austin, I remember Uncle Ed most from my childhood in Helena, near Harbor Beach. Since we lived about a hundred miles apart, visits were not frequent, but much enjoyed, with him and Aunt Jean (Eugenia, if I have the spelling correct), and Don, Tommy, Patty, and John, as they came along. Donny was close to my age and imparted some of the sophistication of the big city to his country mouse cousin. Uncle Ed always seemed to me to be calm, soft spoken, kind, steady. If anyone deserved to occupy a place on earth for almost a hundred years, he did. The wish, "May his memory be a blessing," was never more appropriate.

Love you and miss you, Uncle Ed. David Abraham
