“ May our lives be truly be a reflection of hers. The thoughts, kindness and love that she gave freely and unselfishly has always touched me greatly and has been a positive influence on my life. Even though it has been mostly long distance I will miss her greatly.

Auntie Edna, you will always be in my heart, my thoughts and my prayers. May God be with you and may he place you in that special place that is saved for those that are "Very Special"!

“ Your mom was the best Aunt a girl could ask for, she brought joy to every holiday, birthday and an occasional conversation after I moved away from Det. She will remain in my heart and be a part of my soul forever. She was the most important member of Dad's family to me as a child and later even more as an adult. She taught me so very much about life.

I can see Auntie Edna, Uncle Teo and Dad now up in heaven having a blast together. I can only emagine what we are missing.

May your days ahead be filled with love and understanding for each other as you go through the period of mourning together. May our family never seperate or lose contact if only for their memory. To all my family of Anutie Edna & Uncle Teo, All sympathies and our LOVE.

“ We are very sorry for your loss. Auntie led a life I hope to be able to lead as long as she did. She was always very kind and sweet to us and every year she remembered my birthday and our wedding anniversary. The cards were always signed "Love Always, Auntie Edna and family".

We will miss her and we know you will too!##imported-begin##Mark & Pam Thierry (daughter of Ray & Jan Jurczyk)##imported-end##
