“ I met Edna at the Krazy Greek about 2004. Myself and my Uncle Art looked forward to our weekly visits on Sundays just to talk to her about current times such as politics, traveling, her family, grandchildren and every other thing that was happening in the world. Edna was a warm loving person who loved sharing stories of when she lived in Alaska and working at TACOM & Selfridge. She would have this big smile on her face when Chauncey Billups of the Detroit Pistons came and she waited on him. Edna literally glowed. Her glow and smile were contagious. We had some pretty deep conversations through the years about many different topics and it seemed like I knew her all my life and we clearly understood each other. Barb & George, my condolences to you and the rest of your family. May she rest in peace.

“ I met Edna when I went to work in the Distribution office at TACOM. Edna took me under her wing and taught me so much. We sure had some good times working together. Edna was a very talented lady, she even taught the ladies and me how to make silk flower arrangements during our lunch period, and yes I still remember how. It sure was fun! Edna always talked about her family, her travels, living in Alaska, working at the commissary at Selfridge and helping out at her daughters restaurant. Also she would share the stories of the Shaw family reunions. It was so nice to visit with Edna in September 2019 at her 90th birthday. Thank you for inviting me. Edna looked fabulous, so nice to see she still had her sweet smile and a warm hug to share. Edna you will be missed. I was truly blessed to call you my friend. My deepest condolences to Edna's daughters, losing your Mom is the hardest thing a daughter will face. There is no one like a Mom. Sending you all a great big hug. To Edna, you are finally home, rest in peace my friend. Love, Kim xo
