“ My husband and I enjoyed camping with Ed and Barb. Ed took pride in making the fires, he would bring a truck load of wood, stake the wood high but, securely in the fire pit and no wood with nails were allowed or ANY other type of brie. You knew you were in for a big, worm secure fire. We're going to miss him. But always, treasure the memories.

“ The memories that I have are from when I was little. When I visited I was always spoiled and had many rides on my cousins shoulders, never knowing if my head was going to be taken off in the doorways. When I saw Ed last he didn't miss the opportunity to let me know he still had to bend to put his chin on my head. Rest easy cuz. Love you.

“ We met Ed at the bowling alley watching his Grandson Justin bowl. We were absorbed into the whole family. We have shared so many great memories & will miss him. May he rest easy knowing his lovely family will carry on & continue to make him proud.
