It was truly sad to hear about the passing of a fine person that I had the pleasure of getting to know while growing up in Detroit. Edward definitely was one of the many fine neighbors who was part of the closely knit families who lived on Yonka. He was a man like all of the others who was always ready to jump in and assist others when it was needed. I send my heartfelt condolences to the Marcinko family. May he rest in peace.##imported-begin##Dick Faria##imported-end##
