“ Eddie you were a great friend for many years. I remember such great times at Chrysler. The times we dined with "city chicken dinners " at Michele's restaurant..It was mandatory at least 3 times a year..Our group of guys were committed to it because of you..We were close "Edju" my friend and you will be missed..You celebrated my children's weddings with us and other parties.. You were a part of our family..God bless and keep you...ps..I know you and Leona are in heaven..She called you home..

I loved you & Lee from a distance. You did more than you know for me as a young adolescent. Welcomed me anytime I came to visit as an adult. Lee, asked God to call you home, she couldn't be without you. Rest and Enjoy pain free loving life with your love of life.
