“ I hope the family will be okay. May God prove to be your Source of comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3) We can look forward to the time when Jesus Christ will resurrect our loved ones.

John 5:28, 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (29) and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."

Jehovah God has promised us that we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of His Son Jesus Christ resurrecting those asleep. I truly hope these words were of some comfort too. May everyone please accept my condolences.

“ We know Ed from Salem Memorial Lutheran Church in Detroit. He was so faithful! A kind, jolly, positive man, whom we remember with much affection. We extend our prayers to Ed's family.

“ Though I never met Edward Willis or his family, I could not help but notice his obituary as my grandfather, Jack Keefe, was Detroit Fire Chief in the 1940s when Edward White would have been somewhat starting out. My grandfather also made it into his 90s (to 95). They are no doubt sharing stories already of days of service so many years ago!

“ Although Dad came into our lives at a later point, he brought much happiness and joy to all of us. He used to say he wanted to live to be 100 and although he fell short of that goal, he did not fall short in making our lives richer for being a part of his.

Our deepest sympathy to Maxine, Maureen, Richard and Edward.

He will be greatly missed:
