“ Dear Mrs. Griesbach & Family,

I want to extend my sympathy to you at the loss of your husband. I pray that you will find strength and comfort to endure this great sadness--the strength that only comes from Almighty God Jehovah, "the God of all comfort". Always remember that you are never alone. Please take care.

“ Sue,
George and I will always remember how you and Dennis danced so gracefully at our wedding. We always wished we could dance as well as the two of you. Dennis will be missed by many. We will keep you and your family in our prayers during this difficult time.

Love,

“ Dennis was a good friend, advisor, and mentor but most of all a fighter. His strength and courage throughout his battle is an inspiration to us all. He will be remembered as a great man and a solid citizen.

God bless him##imported-begin##Matt and Jennifer Scarsella##imported-end##

“ Dear Susan,
I knew Dennis as a dear classmate and lifeguard at old Warren High. In fact we were in the first lifesaving class ever offered at WHS and worked as lifeguards for several years. Dennis was one of the best swimmers I know. He was a quiet, gentle, and caring young man. I remember, at a HS picnic, Dennis talked about his future, a rare thing, and how he was looking for a partner who shared his views on life , religion, and family. I think he found that in you. I am so sorry that Dennis was taken from us but his loving legacy lives on.##imported-begin##Romaine Stapleton##imported-end##

“ Dear Susan,

Paul and I are deeply saddened to hear of Dennis' passing. We are flying to CA in the morning tomorrow so we won't be able to attend the services for Dennis but we want you to know you are in our thoughts and prayers. Even though we only knew Dennis for such a short time we felt he was a very special person. He had a way of touching your heart and he displayed such quiet courage. He was a real joy to be with. We will miss him. God bless you.

“ Dear Sue-- and Jim & Dorothy, too;
How many memories come crowding in on learning that Dennis has passed away! Meeting you in the halcyon days in the early 80s, building our businesses. Dennis had such passion for helping the elderly with their finances, for exposing and saving them from scammers. But you were his greatest passion, Sue.
In Sept. 2003 I learned I had cancer; that same day, I had a later appt scheduled with Dennis. I went to a church immediately after the news to pray (and refocus on driving) and decided to keep my appt. In addition to my finances, Dennis & I talked about cancer. He was a private man so I was touched that he'd reach out to me that way with his own thoughts about it.
Not all the memories make me cry: Somewhere I have a picture of us at a costume party (I think we were pirates- 'nuff said). And another picture of my late father-in-law up a tree in Dennis's mom's backyard at a picnic. (Why???) I remember you 2 accompanying me to Coleman Young's inaugural bash with our favorite Democrat (Bob) and having to hitch a ride home from the shoulder of I-75 down in the hood! Ha! Remember how I rented office space from you for a few months but had to move out because I could not resist the crack-donuts downstairs? (How do you guys???) I always loved the incongruity of a leathered, motorcycle dude, weight lifter like Dennis being so fond of felines such as the unforgettable Munchkin and Kitty. You two always out-danced all of us at New Year's Eve and at every dinner dance.
His legacy? Love and loyalty, the challenge to dare to go for it, to try things, to live ethically, the integrity to say "no" to dishonest colleagues and even clients, and the example of personal and professional class and discretion.
Get the party started for us, dear Dennis. When our time comes, may we meet merrily in Heaven and dance again.##imported-begin##Gail Jurczyk##imported-end##

“ Dear Susan: We are saddened, but thank God for the friendship and love we have shared with you and Dennis, especially in the last couple years. We had such great times together, sharing laughter and at times his struggle with the disease which took him from us. We will miss him and we will try to be with you whenever you need us.

Our love,
